

Hackettstown²⁰⁰⁸ Historic House Tour

Tickets are now available for the 2008 Hackettstown Historic House Tour.

The tour features five private Victorian-era homes, including a rare example of a mid-19th century Octagon House, one of only five remaining in New Jersey. Other buildings include a Greek revival hotel, Greek and Gothic revival churches and Hackettstown's grande dame, Centenary College.

Special events include a Victorian Tea from 2pm-4pm, hosted in Centenary College's beautiful front parlor, a vintage clothing display, and horse drawn carriage rides through the Historic district, all included in the ticket price.

The First Presbyterian Chapel on Main Street will be serving a Victorian lunch from 11am-1pm. Tickets sold separately.

For more information, visit us on line at
